

The World Book Day website is full of fantastic books and resources for young children. They have recently added a collection of short video stories featuring much loved characters, alongside some exciting new faces. Each story is simple to follow and includes helpful tips to support shared read with your little one.

Please click here to watch the Read Along Videos

We highly recommend exploring the site. Once you are there, take some time to browse the many other brilliant resources designed to inspire a love of reading and make story time even more enjoyable.

